Elkhart’s Aquatic Biology Program

The Aquatic Biology program samples local streams to evaluate the health of the St. Joseph and Elkhart Rivers and their tributaries.
Spot the fish!
The presence of certain fish can indicate healthy water.

These fish are sensitive to pollution. The presence of these fish and others may indicate the water is relatively healthy.